TO THE GOVERNORS

BOUNTY OF QUEEN ANNE,

FOR THE

Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Having received your permission to compile a concise History of the Proceedings of the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, with an Account of all Augmentations, to the end of the year 1825, granted to small Cures out of the Revenues placed at the disposal of the Governors by the Bounty of the Royal Founder, by the Munificence of Parliament in the last and in the present Reign, and by the Donations of many pious Individuals, I have accordingly proceeded in this Work; to which I have added a Statement of the present practice of the Governors in augmenting poor Livings and in the general administration of the Trust reposed in them: And I now most respectfully present to you, my Lords and Gentlemen, the Result of my Labors.

That the Compilation may prove to be as correct as the nature of it will admit, and may thus serve not only as a source of information to those particularly interested in the subject, but also, by communicating to the Public in general the true state and the exceeding usefulness of this noble Charity, may conduce to an Increase in the List of its Benefactors, is the sincere wish of,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Your dutiful Servant and Secretary,

CHRISTOPHER HODGSON.

PROCEEDINGS

RELATIVE TO

QUEEN ANNE'S BOUNTY.

The Origin of First Fruits and Tenths.

IN giving an account of the proceedings of the Cor- First Fruits poration of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, it seems necessary to advert to the history of the First Fruits and Tenths of Spiritual Preferments in this kingdom, because the revenue hence arising, which formerly belonged to the Crown, was, on the establishment of the Corporation by Queen Anne, granted to the Governors; as the fund with which they were to effect her Majesty's pious intentions.

A short account will be sufficient to shew the nature and origin of the First Fruits and Tenths as imposed upon the Clergy by the See of Rome, claiming the disposal of ecclesiastical livings within Christen- proposed. dom; as also to record the subsequent annexation thereof to the Crown of England, and the ultimate appropriation of them to the augmentation of small livings.

the Nature and Origin of them and Tenths.

Extract from Collyer's Ecclesiastical History.

Collyer, in his Ecclesiastical History in Henry the Third's Reign, (A.D. 1229,) gives the following particulars:—" The Pope having gratified the King in an Archbishop, sent one Stephen, his Nuncio, into England, to move farther for the grant of the Tenths. The King being acquainted with his business, summoned a Parliament to Westminster; where, besides the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, those who held of the King in capite made part of the session. The Nuncio read the Pope's letters in Parliament, and insisted upon a tenth of their moveables to carry on the war against the Emperor. The King being preengaged by his promise, was silent upon the demand. The temporal Barons gave a positive denial; the Bishops desired three or four days to consider the matter, but wanting resolution to stand the Pope's censures, they gave their consent. The Nuncio's business being thus far effected, he produced an authority from the Pope to collect the tax. And here he had particular instructions to inquire into the utmost value, and assess the subject accordingly. And in case the collectors met with any opposition, they were to proceed to the censures of excommunication and the interdict. And because the Pope wanted a present supply against the Emperor, the prelates were compelled to furnish the money before hand, with a promise of being reimbursed when the tax was paid in. In short, the rigour was such, that the Clergy were forced to pawn and sell the church plate, and take up money at interest of Italian merchants. And thus the kingdom was miserably exhausted of its treasure: there being none but Ralph Earl of Chester, who had the courage to oppose the encroachment."

And the same author, in that part of his History First Fruits which relates to the reign of King Edward the First, the Pope's (A. D. 1307,) states-" and to gratify his Holiness farther, he allows his Nuncio, as far as in him lies, to collect the First Fruits of vacant benefices, either with or without cure, for the term required by his Holiness, (that is for three years,) the prohibitions made in Parliament notwithstanding; upon condition however that they do not collect any of the revenues of the vacant Monasteries for the Pope's use. They were likewise enjoined not to transport any of the money, collected in specie, but only remit it by bills of exchange. Upon this occasion it may not be improper to say something concerning the import and original of First Fruits or Origin of Annates. By the term we are to understand a year's revenue, or tax upon the revenue of the first year of a vacant benefice. As to the time when this practice began, it is observed that ever since the twelfth century, some Bishops or Abbots have either by custom or particular privilege received Annates of the benefices belonging to their patronage or jurisdiction. Thus, in the year 1126, Peter, Bishop of Beauvois, gave the canons regular of the church of St. Quintin, the Annates of all the prebends of his cathedral. The same grant was made in the same century to the canons regular of the abbey of St. Victor, by the Bishop and Chapter of Notre Dame at Paris. As to the payments of Annates to the Pope, we find by the remonstrance at Carlisle, it was altogether new and unprecedented. But the Court of Rome, which was almost always gaining upon the liberties of the Church, seldom gave over any project of interest. Thus Pope Secured to the Court John XXII. secured the Annates of all vacant bene- of Rome.

fices for three years together, bishopricks and abbeys only excepted. This was going upon the precedent of Clement V. (already mentioned.) The successors of John improved this advantage into a standing claim, and likewise hooked the Bishops and Abbots into the common servitude. Platina reports that Boniface IX. set this custom on foot, but then he was so favourable as not to charge the Annates any deeper than half the revenue of the first year. The payment of Annates has been all along grudged the Pope, and was warmly contested in the Council of Constance in 1414. Neither could the Court of Rome carry their point there, because the delegates of the French nation stood stiffly against this exaction. The Council of Basil likewise, held in 1431, forbad the payment of Annates by a decree of the 12th session. But then, at the same time, they ordered that the Pope should have a reasonable aid granted, to put him in a condition to manage the affairs of the Church, and support the Cardinals. The Council of Bourges, in 1438, approved the decree of the Synod of Basil against this payment. To which we might add it's being forbidden and put down by several edicts of the French king. As to England, the encroachment of the Court of Rome went on till the reign of Henry the Eighth." [Collyer's Ecclesiastical History.]

The Payment of First Fruits resisted.

But continued in England till the reign of HenryVIII.

The following extracts from the authorities referred to, throw further light on the subject:

Further Particulars of the Origin of First Fruits and Tenths. "First Fruits and Tenths were originally a part of the Papal usurpations over the Clergy of these kingdoms, first introduced by Pandulph the Pope's legate, during the reigns of king John and Henry the Third, in the See of Norwich, and afterwards attempted to be made universal, by the Popes Clement V. and John XXII. about the beginning of the fourteenth century. The First Fruits, Primitiæ, or Annates, were the first year's whole profits of the spiritual preferments, according to a rate or valor made under the direction of Pope Innocent IV. by Walter, Bishop of Norwich, in 38th Henry III. and afterwards advanced in value by commission from Pope Nicholas III. A. D. 1292, 20 Edward I. [Blackstone's Commentaries, vol. 1, page 284, which valuation of Pope Nicholas is still preserved in the Exchequer." [3 Inst. 154.

"In the 34th Edward I. at a Parliament held at Complaints Carlisle, great complaint was made of intolerable op- ment of the pressions of Churches and Monasteries, by William caused by Testa (called Mala Testa) and the legate of the Pope, sition of and principally concerning First Fruits; at which Parliament the King, by the assent of his Barons, denied the payment of First Fruits of Spiritual promotions within England, which were founded by his progenitors and the nobles and others of the realm, for the service of God, alms, and hospitality. And to this effect he writ to the Pope, and thereupon the Pope relinquished his demand of First Fruits of Abbeys: in which parliament the First Fruits for two years were granted to the King." [12 Co. 45.]

" In 50th Edward III. the Commons complain, Further Comamongst other grievances, from the Court of Rome, plaints. that the Pope's collector that year (a thing never before done) had taken the First Fruits of every benefice whereof he had made provision or collation; whereas he was used to take First Fruits only of benefices vacant in the Court of Rome." [Degge, page 2, c. 15.]

in Parliaoppression the impo-First Fruits.

First Fruits gradually imposed by the See of Rome,

"In truth, this tribute or revenue of First Fruits was gradually by little and little imposed by the Bishop of Rome, on such vacant benefices as himself conferred and bestowed; and this was often complained of as a very great grievance; so that in the Council at Vienna, Clement V. who was made Pope in the year 1305, forbad the receiving thereof, and ordered the same to be laid aside, and that the twentieth part of the sacerdotal revenues should, instead thereof, be annually paid to the Bishop of Rome; but this not taking effect, the Pope so retained the said Annates to his exchequer, as that it long remained one of the most considerable parts of his revenue." [God. Rep. 337.]

The reason alleged for the exaction.

"The reason alleged by the canonists for the exaction of these First Fruits by the Pope, was pro conservando decenti statu suo, ut qui omnium curam habet de communi alatur." [God. Rep. Can. 337. See the case of First Fruits and Tenths, 12 Rep. 45.]

Ground of the Pope's claim to Tenths.

Valuation made of Livings. "The Tenths the Pope (after the example of the High Priest among the Jews, who had of the Levites a tenth part of the tithes) claimed as due to himself by divine right. And this portion or tribute was by ordinance yielded to the Pope in the 20th Edward I. and a valuation then made of the ecclesiastical livings within this realm, to the end the Pope might know and be answered of that yearly revenue; so as that the ecclesiastical livings chargeable with the Tenth (which was called spiritual) to the Pope, were not chargeable with the temporal Tenths or Fifteenths granted to the King in parliament, lest they should be doubly charged; but their possessions, acquired after that taxation, were liable to the temporal Tenths or Fifteenths, because they were not charged to the other. So as the Tenths of ecclesiastical livings were not vielded to the Pope de jure after the example of the High Priest among the Jews, for then he should have had the Tenths of all ecclesiastical livings whensoever they were acquired; but he contented himself with what he had got, and never claimed more: and that he might the better keep and enjoy that which he had got, the Popes did often after grant the same for certain terms to divers of the Kings of England, as by our historians doth appear." [2 Inst. 627. 628.]

The Tenths often granted for terms by the Pope.

The Annexation of the Revenue of First Fruits and Tenths to the Crown.

The claim of the Pope to this revenue, met from The First time to time with a vigorous resistance from the English Parliament, and a variety of acts were passed to prevent and restrain it, particularly the statute 6th Henry IV. But the Popish Clergy, devoted to the will of a foreign master, still kept it on foot; sometimes more sécretly, at other times more openly and avowedly, so that in the reign of Henry VIII. it was computed that in the compass of 50 years, 800,000 ducats had been sent to Rome for First Fruits only. Upon the abolition of the Papal power in the same reign it was thought proper, as the Clergy had expressed this willingness to contribute so much of their income to the head of the Church, (which the King was then declared to be,) to annex this revenue to the Crown, of this Rewhich was accordingly effected by an Act of Parliament the Crown. in the 26th of Henry VIII. chap. 3, intituled," An Act By Act 26 Hen. VIII.

Fruits and Tenths paid to the Pope till the abolition of the Papal power in Eng-concerning the payment of First Fruits of all Dignities, Benefices, and Promotions Spiritual, and also concerning one Annual Pension of the Tenth part of all the possessions of the Church, Spiritual and Temporal, granted to the King's Highness and his Heirs."

A new valuation made.

Commissioners were appointed by this Act in each diocese to make a new valor beneficiorum, by which the Clergy have ever since been, and at the present time are rated. This is commonly called the King's book, and a transcript of it is given in Ecton's Thesaurus and in Bacon's Liber Regis.

Appropriation by Queen Anne of the Revenue of First Fruits and Tenths to the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy.

First Fruits and Tenths relinquished by Queen Mary.

Resumed by Queen Elizabeth.

Appropriated by QueenAnne to augment Small Livings.

The First Fruits and Tenths were relinquished by the Crown, by an Act passed in the 1st and 2nd of Philip and Mary, chap. 4; but were again annexed thereto, by an Act passed in the 1st of Elizabeth, chap. 4, and from the time of passing the last mentioned Act, they continued to be part of the revenues of the Crown until the reign of Queen Anne, when her Majesty piously restored them to the Church, not indeed by remitting them entirely, but, in a spirit of the truest equity, by applying the First Fruits and Tenths arising from the larger benefices to make up in some degree the deficiencies of the smaller.

Bishop Burnet's recommendation of the measure in the former reign. Bishop Burnet, as appears by the History of his Life, published by his son, had recommended to King William and Queen Mary the appropriation of the First Fruits and Tenths to the augmentations of small livings. In this History are set forth two memorials on the subject which the Bishop had presented to the King, in the years 1696 and 1697; and it is observed, that the Bishop renewed his solicitations upon this head so powerfully in the year 1701, that nothing but the death of King William could have prevented it's then taking effect.

The same Bishop, in his History of his own Time, Bishop treating of the appropriation by Queen Anne of the account of revenue of First Fruits and Tenths to the augmenta-of the tion of small livings, states (amongst other things) FirstFruits and Tenths that, " During the session, and on her own birth-day, by Queen Anne. which was the 6th* of February, (1703-4,) the Queen sent a message to the House of Commons, signifying her purpose to apply that branch of the revenue that was raised out of the First Fruits and Tenths paid by the Clergy to the increase of all the small benefices in the nation. This branch was an imposition begun by the Popes, in the time of the holy wars, and it was raised as a fund to support those expeditions; but when taxes are once raised by such an arbitrary power as the Popes then assumed, and after there has been a submission, and the payments have been settled into a custom, they are always continued, even after the pretence upon which they were at first raised subsists no more; so this became a standing branch of the Papal revenue, till Henry the Eighth seemed resolved to take it away. It was at first abolished for a year, probably to draw in the Clergy to consent the more willingly to a change that delivered them from such heavy impositions: but in the succeeding session of Parliament this revenue was again settled as part of the income of the Crown for ever. It is true, it was the more easily borne, because the rates were still at the old value, and the Clergy had been often threatened with a new valuation, in which the rates should be rigorously set to their full extent. The Tenths amounted to about 11,000l. a year; and the First Fruits, which were more casual, rose one year with another to 5,000l. so the whole amounted to between 16,000l. and 17,000l. a year. This was not brought into the treasury as the other branches of the revenue; but the Bishops who had been the Pope's collectors, were now the King's, so persons in favour obtained assignations on them for life or for a term of years: this had never been applied to any good use, but was still obtained by favorites, for themselves and their friends. When I wrote the History of the Reformation I considered this matter so particularly, that I saw here was a proper fund for providing better subsistence to the poor Clergy, we having among us some hundreds of cures that have not, of certain provision, 201. a yearand some thousands that have not 50l. I had possessed the late Queen (Mary) with this, so that she was fully resolved if ever she had lived to see peace and settlement, to have cleared this branch of the revenue of all the assignations which were upon it, and to have applied it to the augmentation of small benefices;—this is plainly insinuated in the Essay that I wrote in her Memory, some time after her death. I laid the matter before the late King (William) when there was a prospect of peace, as a proper expression both of his thankfulness to Almighty God and of his care of the Church; I hoped that this might have gained the heads of the Clergy; it might at least have put a stop to a groundless clamour raised against him, that he was an enemy to the Clergy, which began then to have a very ill effect on all his affairs. He entertained this so well, that he ordered me to speak to his ministers about it: they all approved it; the Lord Somers and the Lord Halifax did it in a most particular manner: but the Earl of Sunderland obtained an assignation upon two dioceses, for 2,000l. a year for two lives: so nothing was to be hoped for after that. I laid this matter very fully before the present Queen in the King's time, and had spoken often of it to Lord Godolphin. Upon the Queen's message, a Bill was brought in, enabling her to alienate this branch of the revenue, and to create a Corporation by charter, to apply it to the use for which she now gave it. The Bishops were so zealous and unanimous for the Bill, that it was carried and passed into a law." [Burnet's History of his own Time.

Cunningham, in his History of Great Britain, vol. I. Medal page 417, relates that a medal was this year struck on the occasion with the following inscription:

The Queen's Messag to the House of Commons.

'ANNE R.

' Her Majesty having taken into her serious consideration the mean and insufficient maintenance belonging to the Clergy in divers parts of this kingdom, to give them some ease, hath been pleased to remit the arrears of the Tenths of the poor Clergy, and, for augmentation of their maintenance, her Majesty is pleased to declare that she will make a grant of her whole revenue arising out of First Fruits and Tenths, as far as it now is or shall become free from incumbrances, to be applied to this purpose; -and if the House of Commons can find any proper method by which her Majesty's good intentions to the poor Clergy may be made more effectual, it will be a great advantage to the public, and very acceptable to her Majesty.'

Address of the House Commons. "Upon reading this Message it was immediately Resolved, nemine contradicente, that 'An humble Address be presented to her Majesty expressing the most humble and hearty thanks of this House for her Majesty's most gracious Message, and the great and pious concern her Majesty has for the encreasing the maintenance of the poor Clergy out of her own revenue; and for her Majesty's goodness in remitting the arrears of Tenths to those who are poor: and withal to assure her Majesty that this House will, according to her Majesty's desire, do their utmost to make her Majesty's charitable intentions most effectual.'

I hope you will effect-reply. ually improve it to the advantage of the Church by law established, for which nobody can have a more true and real concern than myself.'

The Clergy of the two Provinces afterwards presented Addresses to her Majesty on the occasion, to which most gracious answers were given.

Addresses presented by the Clergy.

The Act of Parliament to carry into effect the pious intentions of her Majesty Queen Anne, [which is set forth in the Appendix, passed in Session 2 and 3 of her the Corporeign, chap. 11, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual her Majesty's gracious intentions for the aug- royalBounmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, by Appendix.) enabling her Majesty to grant in perpetuity the revenues of the First Fruits and Tenths; and also for enabling any other persons to make grants for the same purpose;" whereby her Majesty was empowered to vest in trustees by her letters patent all the revenues of First Fruits and Tenths of all dignities, offices, benefices, and promotions spiritual whatever, to be applied and disposed of, to and for the purposes therein mentioned. And her Majesty's letters patent, bearing date the 3d Letters paday of November, in the 3d year of her reign [also set Nov. 3d forth in the Appendix] were accordingly granted; whereby the distinguished persons therein named, who then filled the highest offices in the Church and State, and the persons who thereafter should fill the same offices for the time being, were constituted a body politic and corporate of themselves in deed and in name, by the name of "the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy;" and by the same name they and their successors were thereby appointed to have perpetual succession, and to use a common seal, and the powers usually given to corporations were thereby granted to them; and the said Governors and their successors were by the said letters patent directed to receive, manage, govern, apply, and dispose of the royal bounty, and other gifts or benevolences which should or might thereafter be given or bequeathed to the said

Corporation, where the donors thereof should not particularly direct the application thereof, to and for the increase of the maintenance of such parsons, vicars, curates, and ministers officiating in any Church or chapel within the kingdom of England, dominion of Wales, or town of Berwick upon Tweed, where the liturgy and rites of the Church of England, as by law established, were and should be used and observed, for whom a maintenance was not already sufficiently pro-

The Proceedings of the Governors on the Establishment of the Corporation.

Having shewn in what manner the revenue of First Fruits and Tenths became vested in the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, it is in the next place intended to point out the early proceedings of the Governors in carrying into effect the trusts reposed in them.

When they entered upon their duty, the revenue which had been granted to them was found to be incumbered with annuities amounting altogether to the sum of 10,950l.: and with arrears of such annuities amounting to the sum of 21,000l.; the Governors, therefore, applied their funds immediately to the discharge of the arrears, and they succeeded in redeeming certain of the annuities.

The Governors found the revenue incum-

Which they pro-ceeded to discharge.

The first general court holden by the Governors was First meeting, 14th at the Prince's chamber adjoining to the House of Dec. 1704. Lords, on the 14th December, 1704; where, in a full meeting, the said letters patent were read, and the officers appointed by the same, namely, the secretary and treasurer were sworn, and the Lord Archbishop of Can-Officers terbury was desired to wait on the Queen, and to beg of her Majesty the use of the new buildings joining to the Banquetting-house, Whitehall, for the meeting of the Governors, and for offices of the secretary, treasurer and their clerks; which her Majesty was graciously pleased to grant, and further to give directions, that the Lord Chamberlain would furnish those rooms out of the royal wardrobe for that purpose.

The next general court was accordingly held at the General said buildings on the 11th January, 1704; and on Jan. 1704. the 22d of the said month, the draught of a seal was dered. agreed upon, and it was ordered to be made of silver. quer, desiring them to direct the proper officers to lay before the Board an account of First Fruits and Tenths, and of all arrears and incumbrances.

Meeting, 22d Feb. 1704, valuation of livings not exceeding 80l.pr.ann.

At the next meeting, viz. the 22d of February following, the Governors directed an inquiry into the yearly maintenance of all ministers throughout England and Wales, whose benefices exceeded not 80l. per annum (pursuant to the directions of the charter), and desired the lords the Bishops to make returns of the same against the 20th of November following, which were all entered into a book, and presented to the Queen, December, 1707.

Made and presented to the Queen.

Arrears of pensions, &c. charged on revenue.

In the month of December, 1705, a committee was appointed to consider of the arrears of the grants and pensions payable out of the First Fruits and Tenths, and to receive proposals from the grantees concerning the payment of the same.

Committee to receive proposals for the advantage of thecharity.

In the following month the Standing Committee were empowered to receive any proposals that might be made to them for the advantage of the poor Clergy, and to prepare business for the general courts.

Process ordered against collectors of the Tenths.

In September, 1706, an order was made for process to go out against the collectors of the Tenths, if they did not immediately enter upon their accounts.

Charter published. In the said year 1706, a thousand copies of the charter were printed at the charge of the Governors, in order to publish the design of their constitution.

Certain small livings discharged from First Fruits and Tenths. About the same time (1706-7), the Governors addressed the Queen for leave to bring into parliament a bill, for discharging all livings with cure of souls (the Tenths of which were vested in the Corporation), not exceeding the true yearly value of 40*l*. from the payment of First Fruits and Tenths, and all arrears thereof for ever-this being an immediate advantage to those poor livings before any augmentation could be made; to which her Majesty was pleased to consent. And such a Bill being brought into the House of Commons was passed with an amendment of 50l. instead of 40l. The Act passed 5 and 6 Anne, chap. 24, and is intituled, Anne. "An Act for discharging small livings from their First Fruits and Tenths, and all arrears thereof."

In May 1707 the Archbishop of Canterbury in- The Queen formed the Governors, that the Queen had been pleased a pension to give a further mark of her favor to the poor Clergy, annum. by discharging a pension of 500l. per annum, pavable to the keeper of the records in the Tower out of the First Fruits and Tenths.

Another Act passed in the 6th of Anne, chap. 27, intituled, "An Act to enlarge the time for returning the certificates of all ecclesiastical livings, not exceeding the yearly value of 50l.; and also for discharging all livings of that value from the payment of First Fruits, and for allowing time to Archbishops and Bishops and other dignitaries for payment of their First Fruits."

Act 6th Anne, as to returning certificates under 501. per ann.

By virtue of this and the above-mentioned Act for 3,900 small discharging small livings, about 3,900 poor livings were discharged, and the revenue of Tenths, which Fruits and when free from all incumbrances, was computed on an average of 20 years, to amount to about 13,000l. per annum, was reduced by this measure to about 10,000l. per annum.

livings discharged Tenths.

In January 1708 the Governors ordered the officers New book of the First Fruits to prepare a new book of First Fruits and Fruits and Tenths, in which the livings that remained in charge were to be distinguished from the discharged—which book was prepared so soon as the Bishops had made the returns, and was delivered to the Governors.

The Queen desired to know the proceedings of the Governors.

In July 1709 the Archbishop acquainted the Board, that the Queen had signified to him, her pleasure to know what the Governors had done ever since their establishment, with respect to the poor Clergy; whereupon it was referred to a Committee to prepare a state of the affairs of the Corporation, in order to be laid before the Queen; and in consequence, the following representation was made to her Majesty.

Representation to her Majesty by the Governors.

"To the Queen's most excellent Majesty,
The humble representation of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy.

" In obedience to your Majesty's commands signified to us at a general Court, holden in Whitehall on the 1st of July, 1709, by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury; we, the Governors of your Majesty's Bounty to the poor Clergy, humbly beg leave to represent to your Majesty, that after having made an inquiry into, and procured an exact list of all the livings in England and Wales, under 801. per annum, from the Lords the Bishops of the respective dioceses, pursuant to the directions of your Majesty's royal Charter, granted to us, and laid the same before your Majesty; we have met in many general Courts, and Courts of Committees, to consider of, consult, advise, agree upon, and draw up proper and necessary rules, methods, directions, orders, and constitutions, for the better rule and government of our Corporation, and for receiving, accounting for, and managing all the revenues granted by your Majesty to us, and for the distributing, paying and disposing of the same, &c.; and that having prepared and agreed upon some rules hereunto annexed, relating to the distribution of your Majesty's said bounty; we humbly beg leave to lay them before you for your Majesty's royal approbation.

"We have also considered of the state of the revenue of the First Fruits and Tenths, which your Majesty has been most graciously pleased to vest in us for the benefit of the poor Clergy; the state of which revenue, soon after opening our commission, appeared thus:

"The First Fruits and Tenths computed at a medium of twenty years, do amount one year with another to about 17,000l. per annum; but we found the said First Fruits and Tenths charged with grants and pensions (several of them for life) to the value of about 11,000l. per annum, and with an arrear of the same, amounting to about 21,000l.; all which arrear we have been discharging till very lately, and have also bought off the Lady Waldegrave's pension of 1000l. per annum, granted unto her for a term of years; which, with the 500l. per annum, payable to the late Mr. Petyt, (which your Majesty was graciously pleased to discharge,) reduces our yearly payments to 9,500l., or thereabouts.

"As we found the revenue incumbered with the aforesaid grants, and arrears thereof on the one hand, so we likewise found on the other, that there was a very great sum of money due from the Clergy, and their predecessors, at the time of your Majesty's vesting the same in this Corporation; we have, therefore, spent much time in our inquiry after the same, and in distinguishing between the sperate and the desperate debts of the Clergy; and it appeared to us, that almost all the sums of money due from the predecessors of the present dignified Clergy and incumbents of livings were of the latter sort.

"Wherefore being extremely sensible, how heavy the burden of the said debts has lain upon the poor Clergy, upon the account of which many persons have refused to take institutions of their livings, lest they should be obnoxious to the great debts contracted by several of their predecessors, and thereby ruin themselves and families; and we being no less sensible how great the expectation of the world has been (ever since our incorporation,) and especially of the poor Clergy, to see and taste some of the happy fruits of your Majesty's unparalleled Bounty to the Church; we thought we could not better consult your Majesty's honor, nor answer the ends of our establishment and trust, than by finding out some expedient for the present ease and relief of the poorest of the Clergy; and perceiving that the revenue, and the debts and incumbrances thereupon, bore so near a proportion to each other, that little or nothing could be spared from thence to be distributed among the incumbents of the smallest livings, the only method remaining was by way of augmentation, to discharge all livings of such a value, from the payment of First Fruits and Tenths, and all arrears thereof for ever; and accordingly we most humbly applied for, and obtained your Majesty's gracious permission, to bring into Parliament a Bill or Bills, for the discharging small livings from the payment of Tenths and First Fruits-and this hath been the work of two or three winters last past; and we find that out of near 10,000 benefices in England and Wales, about 4,000 are now discharged, by virtue of the late Acts of Parliament made for that purpose, and that in consequence of the said discharge, the yearly revenue of Tenths only, which before did amount to about 12,500l., is now sunk to about 9,500l.; and the revenue of First Fruits is also fallen proportionably to the number of livings returned to be under the improved yearly value of 50l. which pay First Fruits: - and to the end that we might render the remaining part of your Majesty's Bounty as effectual as possible, for your most gracious purposes, we have frequently ordered prosecutions in your Majesty's Court of Exchequer against all persons whatsoever that are in arrear for their First Fruits or Tenths, and several are now actually under prosecutions; but it having been represented to us by the officers of your Majesty's Exchequer, that they would not send out process against the incumbents of any livings till they had distinguished, by the Bishops' returns, which were chargeable, and which not; nor could the Bishops execute such process till new books of Tenths were made, and new rolls of livings chargeable with Tenths sent down to them. We desired the Barons of your Majesty's Exchequer, to give the necessary orders to the officers of the First Fruits, to prepare a new book of Tenths, which has been the whole business of the last year; and till that was done, we have been obliged to stop process against all incombents of livings with cure of souls; but we actually prosecuted and recovered several sums of money from several Dignitaries of the Church, or their executors.

"We have also from time to time received several proposals for the improving and rendering more effectual your Majesty's great charity to the Clergy, and the same are now under consideration; but upon this occasion we humbly beg leave to represent to your Majesty, that the obligation we lie under by our constitution of holding no Court without the assistance of a Bishop, a Privy Counsellor, and a Judge, or Queen's Council, has so often put a stop to our doing any business; either in winter, when your Majesty's service in Parliament, Councils, or Courts of Justice, requires their attendance; or in summer, when the Lords the Bishops are visiting their respective dioceses, and the Judges in their circuits, and your Majesty's Court and Council removed from town; that we most earnestly beseech your Majesty to allow us to consider of, and propose to your Majesty some proper methods to obviate those, and other inconveniences of our present constitution. By order of the Governors,

JOHN CHAMBERLAYNE,

Secretary."

Application to the Queen for a further Charter.

In March 1711, the Lord Archbishop of York was desired to represent to the Queen the inconveniences resulting from the present quorum of the Governors; namely, a Bishop, a Judge, and a Privy Counsellor, who must always be part of every Court, and the want of a new Charter on other accounts, which matters the Queen referred to the Attorney-general.

2d Charter.

Rules and Orders for the distribution of the Queen's Bounty were settled and agreed to by the Corporation; and being laid before Queen Anne, for her approbation, were afterwards confirmed by Her Majesty's letters patent, bearing date the 5th day of March, 1712; called the Second Charter.

The rules are twenty in number, and are declared Rules conby her Majesty to be the rules, methods, directions, 2d Charter. orders and constitutions, by which the Governors of the said Corporation, and their successors, should receive, manage, govern, apply and dispose the Royal Bounty, and other gifts and benevolences in the said letters patent mentioned, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Charter, and of the said letters patent. Reserving nevertheless to her Majesty, her heirs and successors, full and absolute power and authority from time to time, and at all times thereafter under the great seal, * to make any alterations in the said several and respective orders; and to give and make in like manner such other orders, rules and directions, for and concerning the better government of the said Corporation; and for the managing, governing, applying and disposing of the Royal Bounty to them granted; and for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, according to the true intention of the letters patent of incorporation as to her Majesty and her successors should seem meet.

The second charter and the new rules from time 2d Charter to time made by the Crown, altering and extending Rules, &c. the rules contained in the 2d charter and for enlarg-set forthin Appendix. ing the powers of the Governors are severally set forth in the Appendix.

In the year 1713, the Secretary was ordered to pre- Lists of pare two lists of small livings, in order to their being under 101. augmented. The first, of such as did not exceed 10l. and 35l.per Annum. per annum, to which, according to the rules contained in the second charter, two-thirds of the yearly income at that time were to be appropriated. And the second of livings not exceeding 35l. per annum, that being then the value of livings to be augmented in conjunction with private benefactions.

New Charter published. At the latter end of this year (1713) the new charter and rules were laid before the Board, and 500 copies of the Charter, and 10,000 copies of the rules were directed to be printed, in order to be distributed among the Clergy and others, and the rules were published in the Gazette.

20thMarch 1713, 1st Distribution of the Royal Bounty ordered. To this time, by reason of the incumbrances upon the revenue, very little each year, remained clear to be disposed of by the Governors; but now by degrees a competent sum being provided, on the 20th March, 1713, the Governors resolved upon the first distribution of the Queen's Bounty to the Poor Clergy, and ordered public notice to be given, that there was the sum of 5,600l. to be distributed in 28 shares of 200l. each, according to the rules of the Corporation; and the said rules were ordered to be again published in the London Gazette.

List of Crown Livings under 101. per annum. The Governors did at the same time direct, that a list of all such livings in the gift of the Crown, as did not exceed 10*l*. per annum should be procured, to the end they might have the preference of augmentation; pursuant to a rule contained in the second charter, which list was prepared and brought in accordingly.

Act 1. G. I. ch. 10. (set forth in Appendix.) At the beginning of the year 1714, Lord Chief Justice Parker (afterwards Lord Chancellor) laid before the board the draft of a new Bill, which afterwards passed into an Act 1 Geo. I. chap. 10, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual her Majesty's gracious intentions for augmenting the maintenance of the Poor Clergy." This Act is set forth in the Appendix, as is also an Act for enlarging the powers of the Governors, which passed 44 Geo. III. chap. 107, -intituled, "An Act 43.G.3 Act for effectuating certain parts of an Act passed in the 2nd and 3rd years of the reign of her late Majesty in A Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the making more effectual her Majesty's gracious intentions for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant in perpetuity the revenue of the First Fruits and Tenths; and also for enabling any other persons to make grants for the same purpose, so far as the same relate to deeds and wills made for granting and bequeathing lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods and chattels, to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the purposes in the said Act mentioned; and for enlarging the powers of the said Governors." And in the Appendix, another Act is introduced, viz. "An Act passed 45 Geo. III. chap. 84.—intituled, "An Act for making Act 45.G.3. more effectual the gracious intentions of her late Majesty Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, so far as relates to the returns of certificates into the Exchequer and gifts of personal property."

(set forth in Appen-

The collection of the Tenths under the system adopted before the grant of them to the Governors having been found to be badly contrived, the Governors for some years after their incorporation, suffered much consequent inconvenience and loss; and they were much employed in devising means to correct the evil, and at length they obtained an Act of Parliament,

Act. 3. G. 1. for better collecting the First Fruits and Tenths.

in the 3rd year of the reign of King George I. chap. 10. intituled, "An Act for the better collecting and levying the revenue of the Tenths of the Clergy."

The further Proceedings of the Governors.

Great augmentation of Livings effected by the Governors.

After the heavy incumbrances of the annuities charged on the revenues of the Clergy were removed, and after the new regulations for the better collection of the Tenths had been acted upon, the Governors proceeded by virtue of the Charters and Acts of Parliament by slow degrees, with as much effect as their funds permitted, to augment small livings, according to the rules prescribed in the second Charter. But since the munificient grants have been made by Parliament, eleven in number of 100,000l. each; the first of which was voted in 1809, to be applied by the Governors for the same purposes as the Royal Bounty; the augmentation of small livings, especially those of large population, has been effected in a most extensive manner; as will appear by the account of augmentations which is set forth in the Appendix.

By the Royal Bounty and the Grants made by Parliament.

Advantages to the Clergy and to the Public.

The greatest benefit has been conferred on the Church by this Corporation, in the way of increase to the incomes of the Clergy of the poorest class of livings in this kingdom, particularly since the large means placed at the disposal of the Governors by Parliament has enabled them to augment to a considerable amount, livings containing a large population;

the advantage to the community has been in proportion, for the Governors have taken care to recommend where augmentations were made by them, that increased duty in cases requiring and admitting it, should be performed. The residence of the Clergy has been also promoted by the proceedings of the Govenors of Queen Anne's Bounty, as well by advances of money made by them to incumbents on mortgage of their livings, as by their applying money appropriated for the benefit of particular livings, in defraying the expences of purchasing buildings, or improving houses for the residence of the incumbents thereof. The Acts of Parliament enabling the Governors to make such loans and so to apply appropriated money are hereinafter referred to, and instructions are given in what manner incumbents are to proceed, who are desirous to avail themselves of the powers thereby given.

Augmentation of Small Livings by means of the Royal Bounty Fund.

The rules contained in the second Charter prescribe The Rules. what livings were to be augmented by the Governors, and in what manner.

By the second rule the stated sum to be allowed to The 2d each cure to be augmented is 200l. to be invested in a purchase at the expense of the Corporation.

By the third rule the Governors were directed to The 3d begin with augmenting those cures which did not exceed 10l. per annum.

By the fourth rule the Governors were authorized, The 4th Rule.

in order to encourage benefactions, to give the sum of 200*l*. to Cures not exceeding 35*l*. per annum, where any persons would give the same sum, or a greater sum or value in lands or tithes.

The two last extended. The two last rules have from time to time been extended, as livings have gradually become augmented to a higher amount.

The 11th Rule.

By the eleventh rule the mode of augmentation of Livings to be augmented, otherwise than by benefaction, is prescribed to be by lot.

Rule 22d March, 1824. The Governors are at the present time enabled by rule under the Royal sign manual, bearing date the 22nd of March, 1824, to augment by lot out of the Royal Bounty Fund, those cures which are fitly qualified, and do not exceed 60l. per annum. And by rule also under the Royal sign manual, bearing date the 14th day of June, 1820, the Governors are enabled to give a sum of 200l. from the same fund, to cures not exceeding 200l. per annum; where any person or persons, in order to obtain the Bounty, will give 200l. or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof, in land or tithes, or a clear yearly rent-charge or annuity of 15l.

The Governors may augment Livings by lot up to 601. per annum. And by Rule 14th June, 1820, they may meet Benefactions to Livings under 2001. perannum out of the Royal Bounty.

In the year 1809 returns to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty were made by the Archbishops and Bishops of the several dioceses in England and Wales, of the yearly value of all benefices and cures not exceeding 150l. per annum; and subsequently, whenever a Bishop has discovered that any benefice or cure within his diocese, not exceeding the said yearly value, was not included in the said returns, it has been and now is the practice of such Bishop, either without reference to the Bounty Office, to issue queries respecting any

The New Returns in 1809, of Livings under 1501. per annum. And Supplemental Returns. such benefice or cure, and on receiving answers to such queries to make to the Governors a supplemental return under his hand and episcopal seal of the yearly value thereof; or to apply in the first instance to the Secretary to the Governors, to issue a special commission of enquiry as to the yearly value, end other circumstances of any such benefice or cure directed to three beneficed Clergymen and three laymen, (usually recommended to the Bishop by the Incumbent,) and for the Bishop, on the receipt of the answers to such commission, to make a return of the yearly value to the Governors.

The returns so made by the Bishops in 1809, and the supplemental returns since made, are called the New Returns, and are the main foundation of, and have been always referred to in making the augmentations which have been since granted by the Governors.

Nearly all such beneficies or cures which by the new Livings returns were certified not to exceed 50l. per annum, as augmented up to 50l. were by the Governors found to be fitly qualified to be per annum augmented, (to judge of which qualification queries were in every case issued as to the annual value, duty, and other particulars, and the answers thereto duly considered by the Governors,) have been lately augmented to that amount without lot by virtue of the before-mentioned rule under the Royal sign manual, dated the 22d day of March, 1824.

The mode of augmenting them to such amount Mode of adopted by the Governors, was by giving to every living them. ing not exceeding that annual value according to the new returns so many sums of 2001. each, as reckoning the interest thereof at 4l. per cent. raised the same to that amount. The Governors reckoned the rate of interest at 4*l*. per cent. (although they only allow 2*l*. per cent.) because they expect each 100*l*. to produce 4*l*. per cent. or thereabouts, when laid out in the purchase of land, according to the second rule.

If under 501. per annum raised to that amount.

If the Governors found by the answers to the queries issued before the augmentation of a cure that its yearly value had been by any means increased since the date of the new returns, but that it still did not amount to 50l. they gave to it so many lots as carried it up to 50l. per annum.

The Governors do not give less than 2001, which sum is called a lot.

The Governors do not in any of their augmentations give a less sum than 200l. and where more is required either on account of value out of the Royal Bounty, or on account of population out of the Parliamentary Grants, they give so many more sums, or lots as they are called, (whether there be an actual drawing of lots or not,) of 200l. as the particular case may require. This is to the advantage of many cures; for instance, if a cure had been found to be of the value of 41l. 19s. 6d. two lots or sums of 200l. have been given to carry it up to 57l. 19s. 6d. because one lot would have left it still under 50l. viz. 49l. 19s. 6d.

If value of a Living reduced since the new return. If the Govenors found by the answers to the beforementioned queries respecting a cure, that its yearly value had decreased since the new returns, they nevertheless adopted the value stated in the new returns, that being their general practice, and this rule governing them in all cases, equal justice was rendered to all livings of the same scale, as the cause of such reduction in value, generally speaking, may be fairly supposed to apply nearly the same to all of them.

Queries issued before augmentation. Queries as to the duty, annual value, and other particulars, are always issued before the augmentation of a living by the Governors by benefaction, lot, or on account of population, and as well out of the Royal Bounty Fund as the Parliamentary Grant Fund.

The Governors, pursuant to the before-mentioned The Gorule under the Royal sign manual, dated the 22d day of March, 1824, are now proceeding to augment to 60l. per annum, by means of the Royal Bounty Fund, by lot, all livings which in the new returns are certified as not exceeding, and which do not exceed that yearly value; and to meet benefactions of 200l. or the value thereof in lands, or tithes, or rent-charges of 15l. per annum, with 200l. out of the same fund, where the annual value of livings to which such benefactions are given, do not exceed 200l. per annum.

The proceedings of the Governors, as before described, in augmenting Livings up to 50l. per annum, will sufficiently shew how the value of livings now to be augmented by lot is to be ascertained. And as to benefactions, whenever an incumbent of a living under 2001. per annum, has one or more to propose in order to obtain a corresponding sum or sums out of the Royal Bounty, or 300l. for each 200l. out of the Parliamentary Grants; his course is to follow the directions contained in another part of this work which treats of benefactions.

An account of the augmentations made by the Governors out of the Royal Bounty Fund is set forth in the Appendix.

vernors now engaged in augmenting livings under 601. per annum to that amount by lot. And in meeting Benefactions where livings under 2001. per annum.

Mode of augmenting livings by lot or by benefaction.

Augmentation of Small Livings by means of the Parliamentary Grants.

Grant in 1809, by Parliament of 100,000l.

In aid of the Royal Bounty Fund.

Ten subsequent Grants of 100,0001. each.

First Grant chiefly applied in augmenting Small Livings by lot.

Afterwards applied in augmenting Small Livings according to the Population.

In the year 1809, in pursuance of the most gracious message of his late Majesty King George the Third to both Houses of Parliament, the sum of 100,000l. was granted by Parliament, and included in the appropriation act in aid of the Fund already vested in the Governors of the Royal Bounty by Queen Anne for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, according to the rules and regulations by which the funds of the Corporation are governed; and since that period, the Parliament, prompted by the same public spirit, have munificiently granted to the Governors in aid of the same Fund, the sum of 100,000l. in each of the following years, viz. 1810, 1811, 1812, 1813, 1814, 1815, 1816, 1818, 1819; and in 1820, (in pursuance of the most gracious message of his Majesty King George the Fourth,) which together with that granted in 1809, make up the sum of 1,100,000l.

The first sum of 100,000*l*. or the greatest part of it, was disposed of by the Governors in augmenting, by lot, livings of inferior value, without reference to the amount of population, and in meeting benefactions of 200*l*. with 300*l*. in pursuance of a rule under the Royal sign manual, bearing date the 23rd day of June, 1810. Augmentations out of the Parliamentary Grants, on account of population, were first made by the Governors in pursuance of a rule under the Royal sign manual, bearing date the 13th day of May, 1811; by which they were enabled to give a preference to livings fitly qualified, and not exceeding 150*l*. per annum, the population of which amounted to, or exceeded 1000 persons.

The Governors have appropriated the Parliamentary Appropri-Grants; except such part of the first Grant as was dis-Parliamenposed of in augmenting by lot Livings of inferior value, Grants. By a subsequent rule under the Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 14th day of June, 1820, the Governors are further enabled out of the Parliamentary Grants to augment Livings fitly qualified, and not exceeding 2001. per annum, according to the new returns, the population of which exceeds 300 persons.

According to the present private regulations of the Governors, made on the 17th day of June, 1816, founded on the rule of the 14th day of May, 1814; the Governors have, in all cases where application has been made to them, augmented livings found by them Augmention of livings with a population of 5,000 and upwards to 150l. pr. an.

to be fitly qualified, and which had been certified to them as of less annual value than 150l. up to that amount, (or rather to that nominal amount, as the Governors in their augmentations on account of population, although they allow interest at the rate of 4l. per cent., reckon them as yielding 5l. per cent. per annum) where the population amounted to 5,000 persons.

And those with a population of 4,000 to 140l.pr.ann.

And all livings of less annual value than 140*l*. to that nominal amount where the population amounted to 4,000 persons.

With 3,000 to 130*l*. per ann.

And all livings of less annual value than 130*l*. to that nominal amount where the population amounted to 3,000 persons.

With 2,000 to 120l. per ann.

And all livings of less annual value than 120*l*. to that nominal amount where the population amounted to 2,000 persons.

With 1,000 to 110l. per ann.

And all livings of less annual value than 110l. to that nominal amount where the population amounted to 1,000 persons.

With 500 to 100l. per ann.

And all livings of less annual value than 100*l*. to that nominal amount where the population amounted to 500 persons; and the Governors are now proceeding to augment according to the said scale all livings entitled thereto, and which, for whatever reason, have been omitted to be brought under their consideration. They have not yet proceeded to augment on account of population livings above the annual value of 150*l*., nor where the number of inhabitants is less than 500, for want of funds, though warranted by the before-mentioned rule of the 14th day of June, 1820, so to augment livings not exceeding 200*l*. per annum, the populatian of which amounts to or exceeds 300 persons.

It has been objected to the proceedings of the Governors by those who appear to have been but little Observaacquainted with them, that their augmentations have mode of been altogether by lot, and that no preference has been given to livings of large population: this certainly has been the course with regard to the appropriation of the of popula-Royal Bounty Fund, where the distribution has been by lot, according to the 11th rule in the 2d Charter; but it must be considered that for many years the annual revenue was exhausted in bringing up poor livings to the annual value of 10l.; and that now after a lapse of upwards of a century it has taken all the annual revenue of the Royal Bounty, besides benefactions, assisted also in a considerable degree by the Parliamentary grants, to raise all the poor livings in England and Wales which have been brought under their consideration, and which have been found fitly qualified to be augmented, to the nominal annual value of 50l. and this, indeed, has only very recently been accomplished. So far this appropriation by lot seems to be more equitable than any other plan; for where the income of livings falls short of a sufficiency to supply to Incumbents the actual means of subsistence, it is equally necessary to increase the income of the Incumbents of the less as of the more populous parishes. But it is to be observed, that soon after the liberality of Parliament had added so largely to the funds of the Corporation, the Governors, with the Royal sanction, applied these Parliamentary grants to the meeting of benefactions, and to the exclusive augmentation of the income of the Incumbents of populous parishes, leaving the Royal Bounty Fund to supply, as in former times, the means of gradual improvement of the income of the Incumbents of the small parishes; and with so tions on the augmentting livings by lot, and on account, much the more effect and expedition as, by the operation of the Parliamentary grant fund, both in meeting benefactions, and in augmentations on account of population, very many livings were taken from the list of those which would otherwise have remained to be augmented out of the Royal Bounty.

The whole of the grants by Parliament have been appropriated in augmenting livings, as shewn in Appendix.

Observations as to the funded property and securities held by the Governors.

The whole of the 1,100,000*l*. granted by Parliament to the Governors, and the greatest part of the interest accumulated on the parts thereof from time to time unappropriated, have been exhausted in making the augmentations which are set forth in the account in the Appendix.

And here it may not be improper to remark, that almost all the funded property and other securities possessed by the Governors, from whatsoever source arising, have been appropriated to poor livings, and interest on the sums appropriated to each living is payable half yearly to the incumbents thereof, subject as to the interest on augmentations out of the Parliamentary grants, to the condition of their residence or performance of duty, and will continue to be paid until such appropriated sums shall be invested in the purchase of lands or tythes, or in some other authorised manner, for the benefit of the respective livings:-and it is also to be observed, that the remainder of such funded property and securities, and the accruing income arising from First Fruits and Tenths, and surplus dividends, and interest, and from other contingent sources, will be from time to time appropriated by the Governors by lot or on account of population, or to meet benefactions according to the rules established for the administration of the trusts reposed in them. The Governors are ever anxious to make such appropriations, and they only reserve from time to time so much of their capital unappropriated, as will secure to all livings the payment of the monies granted to them, when the same shall be called for, to be invested in purchases or otherwise. The reservation of some part of their capital is obviously necessary, because as the chief part thereof is invested in bank annuities, and their augmentations are made of specific sums of money, a fall in the price of bank annuities might render the Governors unable to meet all the demands which might be brought against them, unless they exercised caution and discretion in reserving a sufficient portion of their capital unappropriated as a protecting fund.

The mode adopted by the Governors for augmenting livings on account of population, according to their regulations of the 17th day of June, 1816, is as follows:

If the living of B—, for instance, certified in the new The prereturns, as of the annual value of 45l. appears by tice of augthe printed account of the census of the population livings on taken in 1821, to contain 5,000 inhabitants, or, in case population. the population cannot be clearly made out by that account, if it appears by the affidavit of the Churchwarden or other parish-officer sworn before a Magistrate, that by actual enumeration he has ascertained the number of inhabitants to be 5,000, or upwards, queries are issued from the Bounty office, to enquire into the duty, annual value, and other circumstances of the living, in the same form as those used previous to augmentations out of the Royal Bounty. The answers to these queries are laid before the Board; and if it shall appear that the living B.-, so certified at 45l.

sent pracaccount of per annum, has not been since in any manner augmented to the annual value of 150l., the Governors grant so many lots or sums of 200l., as, reckoning each lot or sum to produce 10l. per annum, will raise it to that amount.

If the Governors find, by the answers to the queries, the yearly value to be less at the time of making them than that certified by the new returns, they nevertheless adopt the value in the new returns; but if they find the yearly value to be greater by the answers to the queries than that certified in the new returns, they adopt such greater value, in the same manner as has been before noticed in treating on augmentations by means of the Royal Bounty Fund.

An account of all the augmentations made by the Governors out of the Parliamentary grants is set forth in the Appendix.

Augmentations by the Governors, either out of the Royal Bounty Fund, or out of the Parliamentary Grants, to meet Benefactions.

Augmentations by benefaction, to cures not exceed-200*l*. per ann.

By a rule under his present Majesty's royal sign manual, bearing date the 14th day of June, 1820, the Governors are enabled to give a sum of 200l. from their original Fund, or 300l. from the said additional Fund, to cures not exceeding the yearly value of 200l. fixed and certain, where any person or persons in order to obtain the Bounty will give 200l., or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands or tythes, or a clear yearly * rent charge or annuity of 15l.

When the queries are answered and returned to the Bounty Office, it is the business of the Secretary to lay the same before the Governors, whose decision thereon is immediately afterwards communicated to the Incumbent. If they agree to meet the benefaction or benefactions of money, the Incumbent is directed to cause the same to be paid to their Treasurer, upon which being done, the Governors will at their next Board appropriate 2001. out of the original Fund, or 3001. out of the additional Fund, in respect of each benefaction of 2001.; and if the Governors agree to Benefactions of land or tythes. meet the benefaction or benefactions of land or tythes. the incumbent is directed to propose to the Secretary of the Governors the names of three beneficed Clergymen of the Diocese, and of three laymen, to be inserted in a commission of enquiry as to the value and other particulars of the land or tythes proposed to be given by the benefactor, which commission is then issued with queries similar to those when a purchase is proposed. If the return to the commission proves to the Governors that the estate proposed to be given is of the value represented, and is in all respects eligible, the same is approved, of which the Incumbent is informed, and the Secretary then sends the commission with the return thereto, to the Solicitors of the Governors, whose duty it is (at the expence of the Corporation) to examine into the title, and if that is found good, to prepare the benefaction deed.

Benefaction of a yearly stipend or rentcharge. And if the Governors agree to meet the benefaction of a rent-charge of 15*l*., the Incumbent is informed thereof, and is referred to the Governors' Solicitor for further directions, whose duty it is to see that the same be properly secured. When the deeds, conveying the estate or securing the rent-charge given by way of benefaction, are completed, or the lease securing the rent charge is produced, the sum agreed to be given to meet the benefaction is directed to be appropriated to the living.

The Governors do not meet a less benefaction than 2001. in money, or that value in land or tythes,

It is to be observed that the Governors do not in any case meet a less benefaction than 200*l*., or the value thereof in lands or tythes; nor a rent-charge of less annual amount than 15*l*.; nor in case a sum between 200*l*. and 400*l*., or a rent charge between 15*l*. and 30*l*. is offered, will they meet the same with a larger sum than if only 200l., or a rent charge of 15l. was offered. Each separate sum of 2001., or a rent charge of 15l, is a separate benefaction, and may be per ann. met, if the living is fitly qualified as to population and other circumstances, with the sum of 200l. out of the original Fund, or 300l. out of the additional Fund, until the living be augmented to the amount of 2001. per annum. Some incumbents who do not reside or perform their own duty prefer to have a benefaction met with 2001. out of the Royal Bounty, rather than with 300l. out of the Parliamentary grants; because in the one case they receive 2 per cent. interest, although they do not reside or perform their own duty; but in the other case, interest, (which is at the rate of 4l. per cent.) is allowed to those only who do reside or perform their own duty. A separate account of benefactions, Anaccount given to the Governors from the time of the establishment of the Corporation, to the end of the year 1825, is set with the names of the benefactors, is given in the Ap- Appendix. pendix:

Documents to be exhibited to the Treasurer, on receipt of interest.

The first time of receipt of interest by an Incumbent of a living, it is necessary for him to send to the Treasurer, with the proper receipt, a certificate under the hand of his diocesan, or the registrar of the diocese, that he is the legal Incumbent, and the date of his collation, institution, or licence.

The form of receipt for interest on augmentations, by a lot out of the Royal Bounty, or by lot out of the Parliamentary grants (at 2l. per cent.) and on account of Population (at 4l. per cent.) is as follows:

The Governors allow the Treasurer to pay to licenced Curates serving vacant cures under sequestration, which have been augmented out of the Parliamentary grants, interest on such augmentations, provided they mentary severally produce, on their first application to him, a terest to certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the diocese of his approval of such payment of interest: and on production whenever application is made for payment of such interest by every such Curate, of a certificate of his constant performance of duty, and residence either in the parish or chapelry, or within five miles of his church or chapel, signed by two Clergymen of the diocese, and countersigned by their diocesan.

Purchases of Houses, Lands, or Tythes, with Monies appropriated to Livings.

1st rule, 2d charter. The first rule in the second charter prescribes, "That the augmentation to be made by the Corporation shall be by way of purchase, and not by the way of pension."

Governors desirous to invest augmentation money in land. The Governors have ever been anxious to observe to the letter this main regulation, and they have from time to time taken measures accordingly; such as reducing the rate of interest allowed to Incumbents in respect of augmentations which have fallen to their livings, to induce them to be diligent in looking out for suitable purchases. The Governors allow of purchases of houses for residence, and also farm-houses, and lands of freehold tenure, or copyhold, where the fine is certain, and the lord of the manor consents to the admission of the Incumbent, and of purchases of tythes. The first desire of the Governors where there is no house of residence for the Incumbent of a living, is, to invest money appropriated to such living in the purchase of a house, or of land conveniently situated whereon a house may be built. They are desirous that General purchases to be made of lands should, if possible, be as to purconvenient for the Incumbent's occupation; but if that is not practicable, it is their wish that lands should be purchased so near to the livings as that the Incumbents may without inconvenience superintend the occupation thereof by their tenants. There is no prescribed rate of interest, nor is there any defined general rule laid down by the Governors with regard to purchases, further than what has been remarked as to purchases of houses of residence and scites, and of lands situate near the livings for which they are intended; but the Governors decide, after mature consideration, on each separate proposal for a purchase according to its own circumstances and merits.

In order to obtain full information respecting estates When a proposed to be purchased, a commission is issued with proposed, a special queries annexed, addressed to commissioners sion of enas aftermentioned, requesting them to make enquiry is issued. as to the proposed purchase, and to return specific answers to the queries. Whenever such answers are returned to the Bounty Office, they are laid before the Board, and according as they are deemed satisfactory or otherwise, the purchases either receive the sanction of, or are disapproved by the Governors.

When an Incumbent wishes to offer a purchase to the Governors, it is necessary for him to send the particulars thereof to their Secretary, and to state the chases to amount of money remaining appropriated to his living, and to propose the names of three beneficed Clergymen of the diocese; adding the names of their benefices, and the names and places of residence, and descriptions of three neighbouring laymen of respecta-

If purchase disapproved.

In case the proposed purchase is disapproved by the Governors, the Incumbent is informed thereof by the Secretary.

If approved.

If it is approved, the Secretary sends the commission with the returns thereto, and the correspondence, to the Solicitor of the Governors, who then sends all necessary instructions to the Incumbent. The Solicitor, assisted by the Govenors' Counsel, and at the expense of the Corporation, examines into the title, and if that proves satisfactory, he prepares the conveyance of the purchased estate, also at the Governors' expense, unto and to the use of the Incumbent of the living for which the purchase is made, and his successors.

Titles examined, and conveyances prepared, at the expense of the Corporation.

Deeds, &c. in Secretary's custody.

If at any time after the purchase is completed, reference is wanted to the conveyance, the title-deeds, the abstract, or other documents in the possession of the Governors, application must be made to the Secretary, to whose care all the records of the Governors are committed.

Exchanges of Houses and Lands belonging to Augmented Livings, whether purchased with Bounty money or not, for other Houses or Lands.

Act1Geo.I. cb.10. authorizes exchanges of land bought by the Governors. By the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, passed in the 1st year of the reign of his Majesty King George the First, chap. 10. (sec. 13.) it is enacted as follows: "And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful, with the concurrence of the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, and the Incumbent, Patron, and Ordinary of any augmented living or cure, to exchange all or any part of the estate settled for the augmentation thereof for any other estate, in lands or tythes of equal or greater value to be conveyed to the same uses."

And by the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, Act 43.G.3. passed in the 43rd year of the reign of his late Majesty tends the King George the Third, chap. 107. (sec. 2.) it is (after reciting the above clause) enacted, "that the said power shall be and is hereby extended to all the messuages, buildings and lands, belonging to every augmented living or cure."

The commission and queries are nearly in the same form as those used in enquiries as to the proposed purchases.

Instructions if exchange approved. The Governors, in case the answers of the commissioners to the queries are satisfactory, approve the exchange, of which the Incumbent is immediately informed by the Secretary, and the papers are then forwarded to the Governors' Solicitor, to whom the Incumbent is then referred for all further necessary directions for completing the business, and it is then the duty of the Solicitor (at the cost of the parties proposing the exchange, who are required to sign an undertaking to pay all the costs and expences which may attend it,) to inspect the title to the house or land to be given in exchange, and to prepare the necessary deeds.

Expences of exchanges not paid by Governors. As the Governors bear no part of the expences attending exchanges, which are considerable; Incumbents should be careful to stipulate, if they can, that the expences of the Surveyor, and the law expences, or at least a moiety thereof, be paid by the parties with whom they exchange.

Loans of Money advanced on Mortgage to Incumbents, by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty; to enable them to Build, Rebuild, Improve, or Repair Parsonage Houses and Offices.

An Act was passed in the 17th year of the reign of Gilbert's his late Majesty King George the Third, chap. 53, intituled, "An Act to promote the residence of the ch. 66. parochial Clergy, by making provision for the more speedy and effectual building, rebuilding, repairing, or purchasing houses and other necessary buildings and tenements for the use of their benefices." This Act was explained and amended by another Act passed in the 21st year of the reign of his said late Majesty, chap. 66, which Acts are well known by the name of Gilbert's Acts. By the first of the said Acts (sect. 12.) it is Governors enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful for the Governors authorised or appointed to regulate and superintend the Bounty given by her late Majesty Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, to advance and lend any sum or sums of money, not exceeding the sum of 100l. in respect of each living or benefice, out of the money which has arisen, or shall from time to time arise from that Bounty, for promoting and assisting the several purposes of this Act, with respect to any such livings or benefices as shall not exceed the clear annual improved value of 50l. And such mortgage and security shall be made for the repayment of the principal sums so to be advanced as are hereinbefore-mentioned, but no interest shall be paid for the same. And in cases where empowered to advance money on mortgage to Incumbents to build, rebuild, &c. Parsonage Houses.

the annual value of such living or benefice shall exceed the sum of 50*l*. that it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors to advance, and lend for the purposes of this Act, any sum not exceeding two years income of such living or benefice upon such mortgage and security as aforesaid, and subject to the several regulations of this Act, and to receive interest for the same not exceeding 4*l*. for 100*l*. by the year."

1st Loan of Money under these Acts.

The Governors resolved to avail themselves of the powers of these Acts.

In pursuance of the power so given to the Governors, they agreed, at a general Court held on the 16th day of December, 1779, to advance to the Incumbent of the chapelry of Kirkby Lonsdale, in the county of Westmoreland and diocese of Chester, the sum of 95l. being the amount to two years income of that chapelry, on the security of a mortgage of the profits thereof. And this is the only instance of a loan of money by the Governors under the powers of the said Acts for many years after the passing thereof, the Governors having upon consideration invariably rejected all applications. But when the paramount importance of the residence of the Clergy, and the means of promoting it in more recent times, occupied the attention of the heads of the Church (who have always taken the lead in the management of Queen Anne's Bounty,) it did not fail to strike them that by adopting the plan of lending money as authorised by the beforementioned Acts, they would not only invest their funds on good security, but would largely contribute to the convenience and comfort of the Clergy, and greatly promote residence, by lending to the Incumbents of livings, money to enable them to purchase, build, rebuild, enlarge, or improve glebe houses.

. The Govenors accordingly in the year 1811 set They have apart the sum of 50,000l. to be lent in the manner advanced before-mentioned, and that sum being rapidly disposed than of, they from time to time set apart further sums, and continued their loans to all applicants, and between on mortthe above-mentioned year and the end of 1825, they have advanced to Incumbents of livings sums of money on mortgage of the profits thereof, amounting to the sum of 362,129l. 11s. 5d. For interest, the Interest on Governors at first received 4l. per cent. per annum, 3l.per cent. but they have lately availed themselves of the power given by the Act hereinafter referred to, and have repaid by reduced the rate of interest to 3l. per cent. per annum stalments. on all monies remaining due on these loans. The Incumbents who do not reside twenty weeks in the year, are bound to pay yearly one tenth; and those who do reside for twenty weeks in the year, one twentieth part of the principal sums borrowed by them; but by an Act of Parliament passed in the fifth year of the reign of his present Majesty King George the Fourth, chap. 89, intituled "An Act for the relief Act 5. G. 4. in certain cases of the Incumbents of ecclesiastical relief of Inlivings or benefices mortgaged for building, rebuilding, of mortrepairing, or purchasing houses and other necessary ings, who buildings and tenements for such benefices," (Sect. 6.) it is enacted, "that in case any Incumbent of any living or benefice mortgaged or to be mortgaged by account of illness. virtue of the said former Acts, who shall not reside twenty weeks in any year upon such living or benefice, shall have been non-resident in the same year by licence of the Bishop of the diocese within which such living or benefice shall be locally situate, granted by reason or on account of any actual illness or infirmity

And (by sect. 7.) it is enacted, "That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the Poor Clergy, at any time or times after the passing of this Act, to reduce the rate of the interest secured to them by any mortgage or mortgages heretofore made to them under the authority of the said former Acts, and thereafter to become due, to such rate or rates as to them shall appear just and reasonable."

To this measure of the Governors, and to that of The imapplying money appropriated by the Governors of condition Queen Anne's Bounty in the purchase of, or in defraying the expences of building, re-building, or enlarging glebe houses (which is treated of and explained in this work,) is to be mainly attributed the improved condition of the residences of the Clergy throughout the kingdom. The loans advanced by the Governors to Incumbents, and the application by them of appropriated money in numerous instances, have caused the erection or improvement of the many new or newly improved, comfortable, and suitable dwellings for Clergymen, which occur so frequently to the view in towns and villages as cannot fail to attract notice, and have consequently in a very considerable degree promoted the residence of the Clergy.

Directions as to the purchase of a house with appropriated money.

If an Incumbent proposes to purchase a house with money appropriated by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty to the augmentation of his living, it will be necessary for him to make application to their Secretary, and to name three beneficed Clergymen and three Laymen of respectability to be commissioners, in a commission of inquiry as to the eligibility of such intended purchase, and to proceed in the same manner as is directed in that part of this book which treats of purchases generally.

Act 57 Geo. III. ch. 99. By an Act passed in the 57th year of his late Majesty King George the Third (chap. 99, sec. 7,) after reciting that the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty had in some instances purchased, and might thereafter purchase houses not situated within the parishes for which they are purchased, but so contiguous as to be sufficiently convenient and suitable for the residence of the officiating ministers thereof, it was enacted, "that such houses having been previously approved by the Bishop by writing under his hand and seal, and duly registered in the registry of the diocese, shall be deemed houses of residence appertaining to such benefices to all intents and purposes whatsoever."

Houses purchased, though out of the parish, may be made legal residence houses.

Augmentation of Donatives.

By the before mentioned Act of Parliament of the 1 Geo. General Remarks as to Donatives.

Many Donatives have by the operation of Queen Anne's Bounty been augmented and brought under episcopal jurisdiction; and as the Act of the 57 Geo. III. chap. 99, includes Donatives, and brings them under ecclesiastical jurisdiction, as to the residence of the Incumbents, and the maintenance and regulation of the Curates thereof, and as the Bishops may regulate the performance of morning and evening service on Sundays in Donative Churches, and as the Patron of a Donative does not by consenting to the augmentation of it, forfeit or surrender his right to nominate a new Incumbent whenever a vacancy may occur, it appears probable that Donatives will, for the most part, by the consent of the Patrons thereof, be rendered augmentable, and be brought entirely under episcopal jurisdiction.

Augmentation of Cures, as affecting the Curates thereof, and the Incumbents of the Mother Churches to which they appertain.

By the before-mentioned Act, passed in the 1st year Act 1 Geo. I. ch. 10. of the reign of King George the First, chap. 10 (sec. recital. 4 and 5), after reciting that her said late Majesty's Royal Bounty to the poor Clergy was intended to extend, not only to Parsons and Vicars who come in by presentation or collation, institution and induction, but likewise to such Ministers who come in by donation, or are only stipendiary Preachers or Curates officiating in any church or chapel, where the Liturgy and rites of the Church of England, as now by law established, are and shall be used and observed, most of which are not Corporations, nor have a legal succession; and therefore are incapable of taking a grant or conveyance of such perpetual augmentation as is agreeable to her said late Majesty's gracious intentions; and in many places it would be in the power of the Impropriator, Donor, Parson, or Vicar, to withdraw the allowance now or heretofore paid to the Curate or Minister serving the cure, or in case of a chapelry, the Incumbent of the Mother Church might refuse to employ a Curate, or permit a Minister duly nominated or licenced to officiate in such augmented chapel, and might officiate there himself, and take the benefit of the augmentation, though his living be above the value of those which are intended to be first augmented, and the maintenance of the Curate or Minister would thus be sunk instead of

The practice of the The practice of the Governors when a Curacy or Chapel of Ease appertaining to a Mother Church is to Governors be augmented, either in consequence of a lot falling to in Separation of the Separat it, or on account of population, or where a benefaction ther is offered, is to issue the queries used previous to all augmentations (provided the yearly value thereof has been previously certified to them, which must first be done either by a supplemental return, or by answers to a special commission), and on receipt of the answers to such queries, they consider whether the Incumbent is liable to provide for the duty of the said Curacy or Chapel, and they look to the revenues of the Mother Church, and of the Curacy or Chapel, and to the population of each; and if the liability of the Incumbent of the Mother Church to provide for the duty is proved, or it turns out that the annual value of the Mother Church is considerable, the Governors, if they approve of the separation, require the consents in writing of the Incumbent and Patron of the Mother Church to the augmentation of the Curacy or Chapel, and to the separation of it from the Mother Church, and stipulate that part of the revenues of the Mother Church shall be legally fixed and secured by the Incumbent thereof, for the benefit of the Curacy or Chapel, before they proceed to augment it; and, if this be agreed to, the papers are referred to the Governors' Solicitor to prepare, at their expence, the necessary deed to be executed by the Incumbent of the Mother Church. The Governors do not approve of such a separation where the Mother Church has a small population and considerable revenue, and the Curacy or Chapelry a large population. In fact the Governors examine very narrowly all the circumstances connected with this subject, and decide upon every case of the kind which arises, according to its own peculiar character and merits, so that it is impossible to give more than a mere outline of general proceedings, which however may be accompanied with a remark, that a strong case must be made out to induce the Governors to give their consent to separate a Chapel of Ease from the Mother Church.

Avoidance of Benefices by the Incumbents thereof, in consequence of their acceptance of Churches, Curacies, or Chapels, augmented by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty.

1 Geo. I. ch. 10. (Sec. 4.)

All churches augmented to become Perpetual Cures and Benefices.

By the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, passed in the first year of the reign of King George the First, chap. 10 (sec. 4,) it is enacted, "That all such Churches, Curacies, or Chapels, which shall at any time hereafter be augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, shall be and are hereby declared and established to be from the time of such augmentation Perpetual Cures and Benefices."

Act 36 Geo. III. ch. 83. (Sec.3& 4.)

And by an Act passed in the 36th year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, chap. 83, intituled, "An Act for the further support and maintenance of Curates within the Church of England, and for making certain regulations respecting the appointment of such Curates, and the admission of persons to cures augmented by Queen Anne's Bounty, with respect to the avoidance of other Benefices" (sec. 3,) after reciting the before-stated section, in the Act 1st Geo. I. chap. 10, and that it was expedient that such augmented Churches, Curacies, and Chapels, should be subjected to the same rules as benefices with respect to the avoidance of other benefices, it is enacted, "That such augmented Churches, Curacies, and Chapels, shall be considered in law as benefices presentative, so as that the licence thereto shall operate Licence to in the same manner as institution to such Benefices, mented and shall render voidable other livings, in like manner as institution to the said Benefices; and (by sec. 4,) after reciting that doubts had lately been entertained, whether the acceptance of such augmented Churches, Curacies, and Chapels, had rendered voidable in law such other benefices as the Incumbents possessed, before their acceptance of the same; and that it was fit that many Incumbents who had accepted such Churches, Curacies, and Chapels, should be quieted in the possession of the Benefices they enjoyed before the acceptance of the same, "it is enacted and declared, that all such Benefices as were held in conjunction with augmented Cures before the passing of this Act, shall continue to be held by the present Incumbents therewith; and that it shall not be lawful to present to the said Benefices until they shall become void or voidable by death or cession, or by other lawful cause of avoidance arising after the passing of this Act."

It is held that the licence to an augmented Cure, or Observathe continuing to hold a Cure after its augmentation by the Governors, renders voidable a benefice held by such Incumbent before such licence, or before such mented Cures. augmentation. And that an augmented Cure will be rendered voidable by the collation or institution of the tions on avoidance by means Incumbent thereof to a Rectory or Vicarage, or by his licence to another augmented Cure. Some further Parliamentary enactments appear in the year 1807 to have been contemplated on this subject—when a temporary Act of Parliament passed, viz. 47 Geo. III. sess. 2, chap. 75, intituled, "An Act for suspending the operation of an Act of the 36th year of his present Majesty, for the further support and maintenance of Curates within the Church of England, and for other purposes in the said Act mentioned so far as relates to the avoidance of Benefices, by the Incumbents thereof having accepted augmented curacies."

This Act expired in the following year, therefore, and as no further Act of Parliament on this subject has been passed, the law remains with respect to the avoidance of Benefices by augmentations made by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, as before the passing of such temporary Act.

59 Geo. III. ch. 134. amended church building Act.

By an Act passed in the 59th year of his late Majesty King George the Third, chap. 134, intituled, "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building, and promoting of additional churches in populous parishes" (sec. 16,) it is enacted, "That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents, as are required in case of divisions into ecclesiastical districts, under the said recited Act or this Act, to assign a particular district to any Chapel of Ease or Parochial Chapel already existing, or to any Chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act, and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such Chapel, but subject nevertheless to the superintendence and control of the Incumbent of the Parish Church: and all such Curates shall be nominated by the Incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates." And it is amongst other things provided, "that no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the nefices by Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of augmentaany Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings; any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law, or laws to the contrary notwithstanding."

Lapse of vacant augmented Cures for want of Nomination by the Patron.

By the before-mentioned Act of the 1st Geo. I. 1 Geo. I. chap. 10. (sec. 6.) it is enacted, "That in case such (Sec. 6.) augmented Cures be suffered to remain void by the space of six months, without any nomination within Augmentthat time of a fit person to serve the same (by the vacant six person or persons having the right of nomination lapse to the thereunto,) to the Bishop or other Ordinary, within that time, to be licenced for that purpose, the same

And by sect. 7, it is provided, "in case the person or persons entitled to nominate to such augmented Cure, shall suffer lapse to incur, but shall nominate before any advantage taken thereof by the Ordinary Metropolitan, or Crown, respectively, that such nomination shall be as effectual, as if made within six months; although so much time be before lapsed, as that the title of lapse be vested in the Crown."

The Officers of the Corporation.

Officers.

The two officers named in the first charter, are a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

Secretary.

The Secretary is directed by the said charter, "to act and perform all such matters and things for and on the behalf of the said Corporation, as shall be found requisite and necessary to be executed and performed by him in such office." The Secretary appointed by the said charter was John Chamberlain, Esq. The present Secretary, (appointed in 1822,) is Christopher Hodgson, Esq. who resides in the house belonging to the Governors, (wherein they hold their meetings) in Great Dean's Yard, Westminster, and has his office there; and the official business requiring it, he is assisted by Mr. Thomas Glanfield, senior clerk, and Mr. John Holford, junior clerk.

The Treasurer appointed by the said charter was Treasurer. Edward Tennison, senior, gentleman. The present Treasurer, (appointed in 1807,) is John Paterson, Esq. whose office is at No. 68, Old Broad-street, in the City.

By the first charter, the appointment of the Secretary and Treasurer, whenever a vacancy might happen, was given to the Governors; but by the second charter, the appointment of those officers was reserved to the Appointed Crown; and the several persons who have since filled, by the Crown by and those who now hold the two offices, have (upon Patents the recommendation of the Governors,) been appointed by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, during the pleasure of the Crown. Soon after the establishment of the Corporation, by reason of the purchases of Counsel. lands and tythes made by the Governors to augment small livings, and on account of the various legal matters consequent upon the increasing business of the board, a Counsel learned in the law, and a Solicitor, were appointed by the Governors to assist them; the Solicitor. present Counsel is William Courtenay, Esq. and John Dyneley, Esq. of Gray's-Inn, is the Solicitor.

It may be useful to the Clergy to point out in a general way the distinct duties of the Treasurer, the duties of the Treasurer, the duties of Solicitor, and the Secretary; that they may the better the Officers know to which of those officers to refer, when they poration.

Duties of the Treasurer. When information is wanted by the Incumbent of an augmented living as to the money remaining appropriated to it,—to the interest thereof,—to instalments and interest due on mortgages under Gilbert's Acts,*—to the remittance of benefaction money, after a living shall be approved by the Governors as qualified to be augmented by benefaction,—or as to the payment and receipt of money by the Governors generally, application should be made to the Treasurer.

Duties of the Solicitor. And as to the completion of purchases and exchanges of land, after the same shall have been approved by the Governors,—loans of money under Gilbert's Acts for building, rebuilding, &c. of glebe houses,—the preparation of stipend deeds and others,—and on all law business connected with the Bounty Board; application should be made to the Solicitor, to whom abstracts of title are to be sent, but not till after Incumbents shall have been duly informed that the purchases, exchanges, or other transactions to which they relate, have been approved by the Governors.

Duties of the Secretary.

THE FIRST CHARTER,

Sealed with the Great Seal of England.
3d November, 3 Anne.

The First Charter, 3d November, 3 Anne.

Her Majesty, reflecting on the mean condition of a great number of the Clergy,

ANNE, by the grace of God of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting. As the welfare and support of the Church of England, as by law established, have been always our greatest care, so we have, since our accession to the Crown, frequently reflected on the miserable condition of a very great number of the Clergy of this our kingdom, by reason of the mean and insufficient provision for their maintenance in several places, which tends very much to the ruin of this Church: and in regard that the arrears of Tenths due to our Exchequer upon small Rectories and discharges Vicarages could not be answered without great difficulties and hardships to the poor Incumbents, and that several of those Churches, for fear of incurring the full payment of such arrears. were held in sequestration by temporary Curates, without being regularly filled with institution and induction, we were resolved to do as much as in us lay towards easing of the Clergy, and were graciously inclined to think, that the Ministers who served those Cures might, in respect of their poverty, be true objects of our royal compassion, and that it would tend to the honour and good discipline of the Established Church, if those benefices were filled with able clerks, legally instituted and inducted; and to the charitable purpose aforesaid, we signed a warrant to authorise our Lord High Treasurer to discharge the arrears of Tenths due upon the small Rectories and Vicarages not exceeding thirty pounds per annum, by the most improved valuations of the same, on condition that the respective Churches were first filled with institution and induction: and our Lord High Treasurer signified our said bountiful intention by letters directed to our Archbishops and Bishops accordingly; and in order to settle a fund for increasing the maintenances of the poor Clergy, we commanded our right trusty and well-beloved counsellor Sir Charles Hedges, knight, one of our principal Secretaries of State, to deliver a message in writing, signed by us, to our most dutiful and loval Commons of England in Parliament assembled, declaring, that we having taken into our serious consideration the mean and insufficient maintenance belonging to the poor Clergy in divers parts of this kingdom, to give them some ease had been pleased to remit the arrears of the Tenths to the poor Clergy; and that, for augmentation of their maintenance, we would make a grant of our whole revenue arising out of First Fruits and Tenths. as far as it then was or should become free from incumbrances, to be applied to this purpose; and if the House of Commons could find any proper method by which our good intentions to the poor Clergy might be made more effectual, it would be a great advantage to the public and very acceptable to us. And whereas, by an Act of Parliament made in the second year of our reign, intituled, "An Act for the making more effectual her Majesty's gracious intentions An Act to for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant in perpetuity the revenues of the First Fruits and Tenths; and also for enabling any other persons to make grants for the same purpose," reciting, that whereas, at a Parliament holden in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, the First Fruits, Revenues, and Profits for one the arrears of Tenths due on small Livings not exceeding 301. per annum.

Her Majesty's message to the Commons, signifying she was pleased to remit the arrears of Tenths. and would make a grant of her revenue of First Fruits and Tenths for an augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy.

Royal Sign Manual 12 September 1809, 49 Geo. III. The following is the Rule under the Royal sign Manual made soon after the first grant by Parliament of £100,000, to the Governors.

GEORGE R.

George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c. to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting. Whereas the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, have humbly represented unto us, that, in pursuance of our most gracious Message to both Houses of Parliament, the sum of one hundred thousand pounds hath been lately granted in aid of the fund already vested in the said Governors by our said Royal Predecessor Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy, and to be applied in the increase of the maintenance of the poor Clergy according to the rules and regulations by which the funds of that Corporation are governed; that, with a view to promote the residence of the Clergy on their Benefices, the Governors have agreed upon and prepared the following Rule, and have humbly proposed that the same may be approved, confirmed, and established by us, under our Royal Sign Manual, if we in our Royal Wisdom should so think fit, viz.

"That, when a living shall be augmented, either by Lot or Benefaction, out of the said additional fund, and it shall appear by the immediate preceding returns, made in pursuance of the late statute for promoting residence, and by the returns of Livings under one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, made to the Governors in pursuance of a late address to us by the House of Lords for that pur- In Case of pose, or otherwise, that the Incumbent does not reside or perform the duties of such Living in person, or possesses another Living of the value of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, the Governors may be enabled to direct that the money appropriated for such augmentation shall be reserved, and that the interest thereof shall ations accumulate into principal for the benefit of the Living, and neither the principal or interest be invested in land or other hereditaments (except in providing a house and offices within the parish suitable for the residence of the Minister) until an Incumbent not possessed of another Living of the value of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, shall bona fide reside upon or perform the duties of the said augmented Living in person."

And the said Governors have further represented, that by the fourth Rule contained in the Charter granted by our said royal predecessor, bearing date the fifth day of March 1713-14, for the management of the said original fund, it is directed, that in order to encourage Benefactions from others, and thereby the sooner to complete the good that was intended by the said Bounty, the Governors may give the sum of two hundred pounds to Cures not exceeding thirty-five pounds per annum where any persons will give the same or greater sum or value in lands or tithes: that by another Rule, made in the thirtieth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, the said Governors were empowered to give two hundred pounds to Cures not exceeding fortyfive pounds per annum (since increased to eighty pounds per annum), where any persons, in order to obtain the Bounty, would give the same or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands, tithes, or rent-charges: but the said Governors, humbly conceiving that it would tend more to encourage Benefactions from others, and thereby the sooner complete the good that was intended, if the sum to be given by the said Governors out of the said additional fund was three hundred pounds, where any persons, in order to obtain the Bounty, will give two hundred pounds or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands or tithes, or a clear rent-charge or annuity of fifteen pounds; the said Governors have therefore humbly prayed us.

Governors may give 300l. out of the additional fund to meet a Benefaction of 2001. &c.

"That the sum to be given by them to each Cure which shall be augmented by benefaction out of the said additional fund be three hundred pounds, where any persons, in order to obtain the Bounty, will give two hundred pounds, or a greater sum in money, or the value thereof in lands or tithes, or a clear rent-charge or annuity of fifteen pounds,"-if we in our royal wisdom shall so think fit.

We have thought fit to approve of the said Rule, and do by these presents approve and establish the same accordingly, and do hereby direct that the same be added to the other Rules formerly given and established by our late Royal predecessor Queen Anne, by her Letters Patent granted as above mentioned to the Governors of the said Bounty for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor Clergy.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the twelfth day of September 1809, in the forty-ninth year of our reign.

By his Majesty's command,
